▲ Hunt Country Classic ▲

It was a beautiful sunny, warm day on October 8th for the annual Hunt Country Classic. The only cloud in the sky was the fact that Bill Scott, owner of the estate and Summit Point Raceway, was hospitalized. There was a big get well card available for everyone to sign for Bill Scott. There was a good showing of 11 MGAs at the show. Amy brought out our Club banner that we proudly hung on the fence behind our cars. Club members Liz and Bill Ten Eyck's new Mark II won first place, and Bill and Kathy's Wemhoff's newly restored "A" took third place. A red coupe from PA took 2nd place. Convalescing Bill Ten Eyck and his son, Brian, visiting from Tucson, arrived just in time for the awards ceremony.
